

the UAA College of Engineering Presents:

ASK ME ANYTHING

with guest

SEBASTIAN NEUMAYER

DID YOU KNOW?

- Dr. Neumayer is an Assistant Professor of Computer Science & Engineering
- He is from Chicago and strongly believes that Giordano's deep dish pizza should have its own place in the food pyramid. He also really likes how Anchorage has at least three Taco Bells.
- He likes to swim both in the pool and open water. In Boston, he has swam Walden Pond, Boston Harbor Islands, and even the formerly dirty Charles River.
- He lifeguarded for a summer at Typhoon Lagoon, a waterpark in Walt Disney World in Florida. There were no dramatic rescues.
